Lorraine McConaghy
presents Washington at War

Join historian Lorraine McConaghy for a discussion on Washington's role in World War 1, beginning with the prohibition referendum of 1914 through Seattle's General Strike in 1919. The program starts with an illustrated introduction to the war's themes before offering a "Readers' Theatre" script that is read aloud together.

This program was made possible by Library of America: World War I and America.

All Timberland Programs are free and open to the public. The Centralia Timberland Library is located at 110 S. Silver Street. For more information, contact the library at 360-736-0183 or visit www.TRL.org.

Timberland Regional Library provides for the information, reading and lifelong learning needs of the Grays Harbor, Lewis, Mason, Pacific and Thurston county public at 27 community public libraries and six library service partner locations. The library system is funded mainly by local property taxes. Anyone needing special accommodations to participate in a library's programs may contact the library one week in advance.
