Emergency Preparedness

Saturday, March 24

2 - 3 p.m.

for adults

Centralia Timberland Library

Gain the skills and knowledge to keep yourself and your family safe during an emergency.

Steve Mansfield from the Lewis County Dept. of Emergency Management will share emergency preparedness information and resources relevant to Lewis County residents.

Communities throughout the Pacific Northwest are subject to many potential natural and man-made disasters. While we hope that such occurrences never happen, it has been shown time and time again that being prepared for disasters is wise.

All Timberland programs are free and open to the public. The Centralia Timberland Library is located at 110 S Silver Street. For more information, contact the library at (360) 736-0183 or visit TRL.org.

Timberland Regional Library provides for the entertainment, information, and lifelong learning needs of Grays Harbor, Lewis, Mason, Pacific, and Thurston county residents at 27 community public libraries and six library service partner locations. The library system is funded mainly by local property taxes, timber tax, fundraising efforts of TRL Friends of the Library, and generous donations by individual supporters.

Anyone needing special accommodations to participate in a library's programs may contact the library one week in advance. For more information visit TRL.org.
