Come Dressed in Black: Murder's Afoot!

After hours at the library, it's mystery, mayhem, a movie, and lots of fun - for teens only.

Teens, ages 13-18, are invited to the Olympia Timberland Library, Saturday, April 1 from 6:30-10:30 p.m. to help solve "A Willful Deceit: A Murder Mystery." Here's the story:

A wealthy old woman has died under mysterious circumstances. You are attending the funeral. Be prepared for lots of clues and nefarious characters. You form a team and race to solve the case, before others beat you to it. One team will win. All will share in the fun, food, and a big-screen movie to cap off the night.

Registration begins March 18. Stop by the Youth Services Desk or call (360) 352-0595.

Dress code: Black, of course.

The Friends of the Olympia Timberland Library will sponsor this program.

All Timberland Programs are free and open to the public. The Olympia Timberland Library is located at 313 8th Ave. SE. For more information, contact the library at 360-352-0595, or visit www.TRL.org.

Timberland Regional Library provides for the information, reading and lifelong learning needs of the Grays Harbor, Lewis, Mason, Pacific and Thurston county public at 27 community public libraries and six library service partner locations. The library system is funded mainly by local property taxes. Anyone needing special accommodations to participate in a library's programs may contact the library one week in advance.
