A Cheapskate's Road Map to Happiness
Learn how to spend less and be happier, from a guy who's done it.

Jeff Yeager is "the Ultimate Cheapskate." NBC TODAY Show's Matt Lauer said so.

Even before becoming a darling of national media, when he ran nonprofit organizations in Washington, D.C., Yeager was famous for skinny budgets and impressive outcomes. In those days he called himself a "Titan of Tightwads."

Yeager has created a lifestyle that allowed him to retire at age 46. He continues to live a rich, happy life, doing exactly what he wants to do. Thank goodness he loves to share his secrets with the rest of us.

Nationally acclaimed author, speaker and savings expert Jeff Yeager will speak at two Timberland libraries on Saturday, April 15:

Tumwater Timberland Library, 11 a.m.- 12 p.m., 7023 New Market Street, 360-943-7790

Aberdeen Timberland Library, 3-4 p.m., 121 E. Market St., 360-533-2360

Jeff Yeager knows how to live well and be happy - on the cheap.

Yeager is frequently seen on NBC, CNN, ABC, CNBC, FOX News, PBS and Discovery's Planet Green network. He's been on over 500 radio stations, including National Public Radio. His credo, however, is simple. Yeager writes:

"Living on less is a good thing to do. ... It's about a quality of life you cannot buy, a sense of satisfaction you cannot fake, and an appreciation for others that gives life value. It's also about helping to save the planet and sharing with those in need. Living on less can be funny, but it's not a joke."

"Do I buy bottled water?
I don't even buy bottled wine." - Jeff Yeager

Timberland Regional Library provides for the information, reading and lifelong learning needs of the Grays Harbor, Lewis, Mason, Pacific and Thurston county public at 27 community public libraries and six library service partner locations. The library system is funded mainly by local property taxes. Anyone needing special accommodations to participate in a library's programs may contact the library one week in advance.
