In writing poetry, Tod Marshall believes in determining the "where" of his creation: "Connecting creativity to place can allow the imagination to grow in unexpected ways."

Washington State's Poet Laureate will give a workshop at the Westport Timberland Library, Saturday, January 14 from 2-3:30 p.m. He will invite participants to explore ways of bonding imagination to landscape, taking inspiration from the natural beauty of Western Washington.

All TRL programs are free and open to the public. The Westport Timberland Library is located at 101 E. Harms Drive. For more information, call 360-268-0521 or visit www.TRL.org.

Timberland Regional Library serves the people of Grays Harbor, Lewis, Mason, Pacific and Thurston counties, with 27 community libraries and six partner locations. The library system is funded mainly by local property taxes. Anyone needing special accommodations to participate in a library program may contact the library one week in advance.
