15. FINAL BOARD COMMENTS – At 50:05 of the recording  Trustee Blanton requests a copy of the TRL district map be shared with Trustee Sebby and all Trustees for future reference. Trustee Sebby comments that he is just getting the feel of the land here at TRL and hopes to visit all of the branches in the future. Trustee Zylstra shares that he is eager to see the report on the East Lewis County library outreach project and what it reveals. He is also eager to work with the community in the Randle area to find a new location for the Mt. View branch in which we have $1 million earmarked. Trustee Sebby noted that the stimulus money provides $200 million plus for libraries and asks if TRL has a grant writer. Cheryl shares we are all grant writers, and she is aware that the money will be split amongst the states by population, and then dispersed through the states State Library after they have shared how to apply for the funding. There is also additional funding available through state and federal channels for broadband. Cheryl notes that if there are any opportunities to get extra funding, we will try. Trustee Hall comments that previously, the Trustees visited all branches in any given year; then visiting one library in each of the five counties every year; and now we Zoom. Trustee Hall states that it certainly is convenient as well as meetings earlier in the day. Trustee Hall states that it is always good to have Edna join us. Trustee Oliver shares that she really appreciates the ability to Zoom for the board meetings as it meets her work/life volunteer balance well. She also shares her excitement for the West Olympia Mall progress with its anticipated opening day of June 1st.
