

Unattended Children Policy

Purpose

To reinforce to parents and guardians that younger children must be accompanied in the library and that Timberland Regional Library (TRL) staff does not accept responsibility for the safety and security of unattended children.

Scope

This policy applies to all TRL libraries.

Policy

Children seven years of age and under must be accompanied by and be under the direct supervision of a parent designated caregiver who is thirteen years of age or older.

Children eight years of age and older may use the library unattended.

TRL staff does not provide custodial care of surveillance of unattended children.

Parents are responsible for the actions of their children including their children's access to library materials.

Everyone, both adult and children, must comply with the TRL Behavior Guidelines.
