

Public Records – Public Access to Library Records Policy

Purpose

To provide direction for responding to all requests for public records.

Scope

Applies to all Timberland Regional Library (TRL) service points.

Policy

The Executive Director, or designees, is authorized to make available for public inspection and copying all non-exempt public records of TRL and request payment associated with physical or electronic copies per RCW 42.56.120.

Any request for access to TRL public records shall be immediately referred to the Executive Director according to the established Public Records Request procedures.
