

Behavior Expectations

To foster a safe, welcoming library for all, disruptive behavior is prohibited, including:

- Blocking walkways
- Sleeping or camping
- Leaving belongings unattended
- Disruptive noise (including electronic devices)
- Soliciting
- Insufficient clothing (no shirt/shoes)
- Unhygienic conditions, including odor or excessive coughing
- Misusing restrooms (bathing, shaving, etc.)
- Unattended animals on library property
- Bringing in animals other than service animals or service animals in training
- Leaving children under 8 unsupervised
- Harassment, inappropriate personal comments or offensive language
- Entering the library while intoxicated or having an open alcohol container
- Smoking, vaping, or using tobacco products
- Carrying weapons (without a license)
- Ignoring or refusing to follow staff directions
- Illegal behavior

Violating these expectations may result in exclusion from the library with or without warning depending on the nature of the offense. Law enforcement may be contacted in the case of illegal behavior or refusal to leave.

A person excluded from the library may request in writing, within seven days of notice of trespass, that the Library Services Director reconsider the decision and present evidence regarding the factual basis for the exclusion. (Disruptive Patron Behavior Policy & RCW 27.12.290)

Behavior Expectations

To foster a safe, welcoming library for all, disruptive behavior is prohibited, including:

- Blocking walkways
- Sleeping or camping
- Leaving belongings unattended
- Disruptive noise (including electronic devices)
- Soliciting
- Insufficient clothing (no shirt/shoes)
- Unhygienic conditions, including odor or excessive coughing
- Misusing restrooms (bathing, shaving, etc.)
- Unattended animals on library property
- Bringing in animals other than service animals or service animals in training
- Leaving children under 8 unsupervised
- Harassment, inappropriate personal comments or offensive language
- Entering the library while intoxicated or having an open alcohol container
- Smoking, vaping, or using tobacco products
- Carrying weapons (without a license)
- Ignoring or refusing to follow staff directions
- Illegal behavior

Violating these expectations may result in exclusion from the library with or without warning depending on the nature of the offense. Law enforcement may be contacted in the case of illegal behavior or refusal to leave.

A person excluded from the library may request in writing, within seven days of notice of trespass, that the Library Services Director reconsider the decision and present evidence regarding the factual basis for the exclusion. (Disruptive Patron Behavior Policy & RCW 27.12.290)